

Suzuki Association of the Greater Washington Area

Teacher Forums

2020-2021

Friday mornings on zoom

Join us to learn, discuss and grow together as Suzuki teachers.

Register at www.sagwa.org to receive the zoom link.

Oct 23 "Online Teaching and Resources"

Dec 4 "Teaching the Sonatinas"

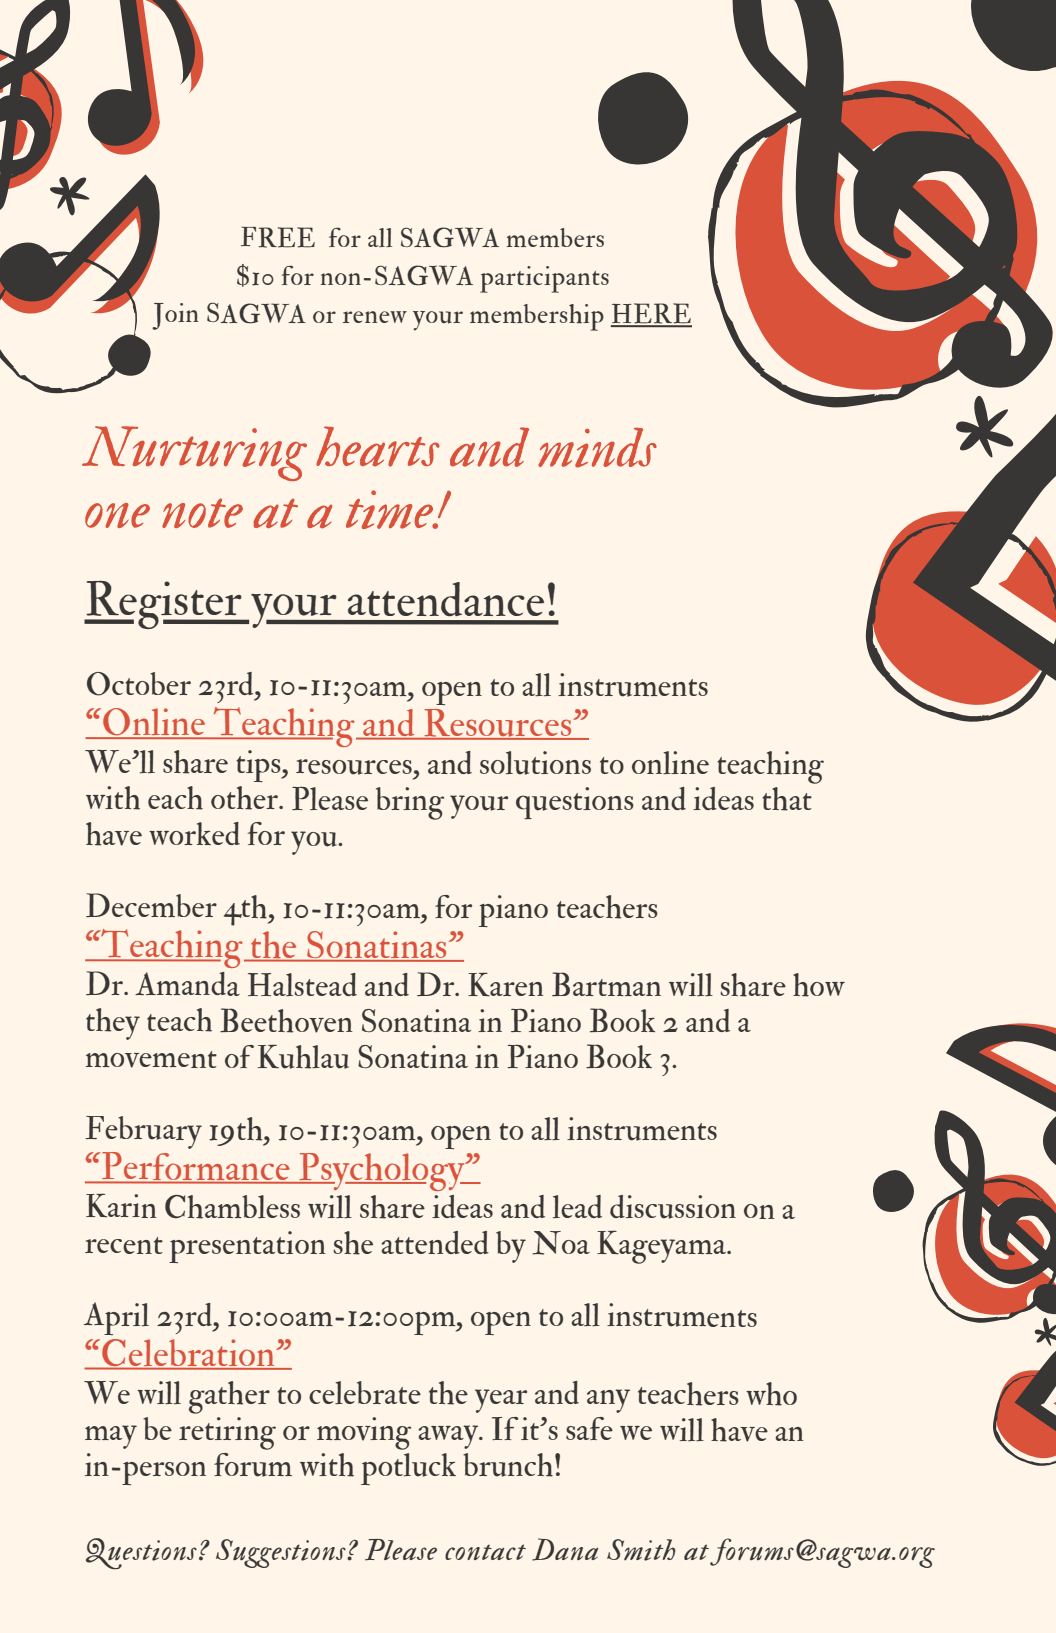

Feb 19 "Performance Psychology"

April 23 "Celebration"

More information on the reverse side

*Questions? Suggestions? Please contact Dana
Smith at forums@sagwa.org*

FREE for all SAGWA members
$10 for non-SAGWA participants
Join SAGWA or renew your membership HERE

Nurturing hearts and minds one note at a time!

Register your attendance!

October 23rd, 10-11:30am, open to all instruments
“Online Teaching and Resources”

We’ll share tips, resources, and solutions to online teaching with each other. Please bring your questions and ideas that have worked for you.

December 4th, 10-11:30am, for piano teachers
“Teaching the Sonatinas”

Dr. Amanda Halstead and Dr. Karen Bartman will share how they teach Beethoven Sonatina in Piano Book 2 and a movement of Kuhlau Sonatina in Piano Book 3.

February 19th, 10-11:30am, open to all instruments
“Performance Psychology”

Karin Chambless will share ideas and lead discussion on a recent presentation she attended by Noa Kageyama.

April 23rd, 10:00am-12:00pm, open to all instruments
“Celebration”

We will gather to celebrate the year and any teachers who may be retiring or moving away. If it’s safe we will have an in-person forum with potluck brunch!

Questions? Suggestions? Please contact Dana Smith at forums@sagwa.org